MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: DCI Statements to Congressmen re: [redacted] STATINTL

STATINTL

1. The following statements by Mr. Dulles concerning Mr. [redacted] are noted for the record.

(a) During the course of a luncheon visit with Senator John Stennis (D., Miss) on 5 January, the Director mentioned STATINTL [redacted] and remarked that this boy is the answer to the "Ugly American."

(b) During the briefing of the Defense Subcommittee, which is chaired by Representative George H. Mahon (D., Tex.), on 11 January, the Director mentioned that the past year had resulted in a good flow of defectors specifically referring STATINTL to [redacted] (but not by name) to the effect that he supplied a good counter argument to the book The Ugly American.

(c) During the briefing of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee which is chaired by Senator Mike Mansfield (D., Mont.) on 18 January, the Director again commented on the number of defectors that had come over during the last year, particularly noting that [redacted] STATINTL gives the lie to the "Ugly American."

2. The Director's continuing strong emphasis on the value of this particular defector is worthy of note.
